Aerial Mail Routes to Be Established. On January 1, Says Praeger. WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—Transcontinental aerial mail routes will be established in the near future, possibly as early as January 1, Otto Praeger, second assistant postmaster general, told the house postoffice committee today, adding that the department also contemplated an aerial mail route to Alaska. Mr. Praeger said a number of cities had offered free landing fields and other facilities.

SENATE ADOPTS CLAUSE

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—The first clause of the treaty reservations drawn by the foreign relations committee, a preamble requiring three of the other great powers to accept the reservations was adopted by the senate late today after many efforts to amend it had failed.

An amendment by Senator King, Democrat, Utah, to make it possible for a foreign power to accept the reservations merely "by recognizing the United States as a party to the treaty," was rejected 46 to 42.

The lineup was the same as on the McCumber amendments except that Senators Gore, Oklahoma, and Walsh, Massachusetts, Democrats, voted with the administration forces.

The senate then took up the first of the senate's fourteen reservations, relating to withdrawal from membership in the league. Senator Thomas, Democrat, Colorado, moved to strike out the provision that notice of withdrawal could be given by a concurrent resolution of congress.

The roll call on the preamble follows:

For adoption—Republicans: Ball, Borah, Brandegee, Calder, Capper, Colt, Cummins, Curtis, Dillingham, Edge, Elkins, Fall, Fernald, France, Frelinghuysen, Gronna, Hale, Harding, Johnson of California, Jones of Washington, Kellogg, Kenyon, Keyes, Knox, La Follette, Lenroot, Lodge, McClellan, McLean, McNary, Mores, Nelson, New, Newbury, Norris, Page, Phillips, Poindexter, Sherman, Smoot, Spencer, Sterling, Townsend, Wadsworth, and Watson—total 45.

Democrats: Gore, Reed and Walsh, Massachusetts—total 3.

Against adoption—Republicans: McCumber—total 1.

Total against adoption—40.

The eight senators not voting were paired as follows: For adoption—Penrose, Republican, Pennsylvania; Shields, Democrat, Tennessee; Sutherland, Republican, West Virginia; and Warren, Republican, Wyoming. Total—4.

Against: Bankshead, Democrat, Alabama; Beckham, Democrat, Kentucky; Martin, Democrat, Virginia; and Stanley, Democrat, Kentucky. Total—4.

Brigham City News

BRIGHAM CITY, Nov. 6.—Mr. Peter F. Sigard of this city died at San Francisco last evening of bronchial pneumonia. He, in company with his son, John, went to the coast last month to take treatment for cancer, and while there contracted pneumonia. He was born in Denmark, November 20, 1854, and emigrated to Utah in 1867, coming direct to this city. He is survived by a wife, three sons and two daughters. Funeral services will be held Monday in the Second ward meeting house, commencing at 2 p. m.

A number of families in this city are under quarantine for smallpox. Several new cases have been added the past day or so, and as a result the Central school, where the malady was first apprehended, has been closed for the week in order to give it a complete renovation. The health officers are on the job and are despatched.

On Tuesday, November 11, the first league game of football to be played in this city this season will be staged at the ball park in the afternoon. The B. Y. C. of Logan will meet the team of the Box Elder High school and a real live contest is promised.

On the evening of Armistice day, the Brigham post of the American Legion will give a grand ball at the Academy of Music, in which all returned soldiers of this community will participate.

"The Big Idea" at the Orpheum Monday, Nov. 10

What if you were broke and your best friend on earth was going to die unless he got twenty-five thousand dollars immediately? What would you do?

That is the question Robert Coswell asked himself through the long night as he paced the streets waiting for the dawn. And the dawning showed him his beloved friend facing, not the known and vast eternity, but a very work-a-day task prescribed by an unethical angel without wings. In her ingenious brain was conceived the "Big Idea." Intensity; fear; joyous youth;

Mr. Hyrum A. Beinap, business manager for the company, and Mrs. Stanley Rhees, president of the Weber student body, are arranging a tour to include Preston, Logan and other northern towns. Mrs. Blanche Kendall McKay is the director. The play will be presented with professional finest.

Prizes for the big six-mile open race, which will begin at North Ogden and end at Lorin Farr park and prizes for the special mile run, the 100 and 220 yard dash events will be displayed in the windows of the Bech miller-Kaplan company today by the American Legion. The prizes range from elaborate loving cups to sweaters and other valuable prizes.

Gold, silver and bronze medals will be awarded the men who win the first, second and third place positions in the big race. In the sprints loving cups of elaborate nature will be offered for the first three men to cross the tape.

Other valuable prizes have been offered and every man that crosses the tape in the six-mile run will receive a valuable prize.

The Drama club will meet tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock with Miss Eva

C. Erb at her home, 220 Twenty-third street. Miss Esther Harris and Miss

Miss Jean Warner was pleasantly surprised with a birthday party Thursday evening, when a number of her little friends arrived to celebrate her natal day. Many games, such as diving for apples, fortune hunting and ghost story telling were enjoyed throughout the evening. A perfectly prepared Halloween lunch was served later in the evening.

The guests returned to their different homes declaring it a very merry and enjoyable evening.

Those present were: Alice Wilson,

Mabel Payne, Helen Vogel, Flora Wallace, Beatrice Jackson, Helen Johnson,
